Course Description:

Journeying with God: Semester I

This survey of the Old Testament is intended to give you a broad understanding of the first thirty-nine books of the Bible.

Connecting with God: Semester II

This course is a survey, intended to give you an overview of each of the twenty-seven books in the New Testament.

Character First:

This is a supplemental curriculum that will be integrated throughout the year. It follows a three step approach; 1. Emphasize character 2. Require character 3. Recognize character, to develop a culture of character.

SUPPLIES: BIBLE

Course Workbook

Spiral Notebook

Pens or pencils

Highlighter

HALL PASSES:

Only ask to leave the room if it is an EMERGENCY.

TARDIES:

Students are expected to be in their seats and have their materials on their desk ready to work when the bell rings. The door will be shut when the bell rings. Students late for class or unprepared will need to get a tardy slip from the office. See handbook for tardy policy.

ABSENCES:

Students who are absent are responsible for making up their work in the time allotted in the student handbook. Student is required to make up notes and complete assignments missed. Be sure to check RENWEB for assignments missed and schedule a time during enrichment to meet with me for help, if necessary.
