

WORLD HISTORY
CLASS SYLLABUS
2011-2012

TEACHER: Mrs. Maxey

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course covers world history from ancient times to the nineteenth century with emphasis on the western world cultures. It is a study of significant achievements and events of peoples, empires, and nations, and is viewed as a record of both progress and decline. As outlined in TEA objectives students will focus on important events and issues in world civilizations; investigate the causes and effects of political and economic imperialism and major political revolutions since the 17th century; the impact of geographic factors on major historic events; identify the historic origins of contemporary economic systems; understand the process by which democratic-republican governments evolved as well as the ideas from historic documents that influenced that process; the historical development of important legal and political concepts; the history and impact of major religious and philosophical traditions; the connections between major developments in science and technology and the growth of industrial economies. This course will also focus on Christian history and biblical principles that are interwoven throughout all of world history. The historical themes that are developed demonstrate the interrelations of ideas and events of the past and how they affect contemporary life.

COURSE GOAL:

A focus for this course is that students would gain a new appreciation for history and would begin to see historical figures as very real people. Students will learn to investigate for answers from a variety of sources, analyze research, and be able to present their conclusions in a logical manner. The students will gain a competent knowledge of events, peoples, causes, effects, and ideas that have shaped the world that we live in today through a Christian perspective.

COURSE SCRIPTURES:

Job 12:23 “He makes nations great, and destroys them; He enlarges nations, and guides them.”

Daniel 2:20,21 “Daniel answered and said: ‘Blessed be the name of God forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His. And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and raises up kings....’”

Ezekiel 7:27 “...I will do to them according to their way, and according to what they deserve I will judge them; then they shall know that I am the LORD!”

Revelation 15:4 “Who shall not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all nations shall come and worship before You, for Your judgments have been manifested.”
