Text: The Inner Man by Frank Hamrick

Course Description: The purpose of this study, The Inner Man, is to develop character and maturity in “the inner man.” These lessons are written both to impact knowledge and to challenge you to right action. They are more concerned with what one is than with what one knows or does.

SUPPLIES:

- BIBLE
- Course Workbook
- Spiral Notebook
- Agenda
- Pens or pencils
- Highlighter

HALL PASSES:

Only ask to leave the room if it is an EMERGENCY.

TARDIES:

Students are expected to be in their seats and have their materials on their desk ready to work when the bell rings. The door will be shut when the bell rings. Students late for class or unprepared will need to get a tardy slip from the office. See handbook for tardy policy.

ABSENCES:

Students who are absent are responsible for making up their work in the time allotted in the student handbook. Student is required to make up notes and complete assignments missed. Be sure to check RENWEB for assignments missed and schedule a time during enrichment to meet with me for help, if necessary.

GRADING:

80% of your Semester Grade is tests, quizzes, class participation and homework:

- 40% DAILY GRADE (workbook pages, lecture notes, class participation)
- 60% TESTS/QUIZZES

20% of your Semester Grade is the Semester Final

TESTS/QUIZZES

- Tests will be given in the form of written assessments or projects.
- Make-up tests will need to be scheduled and will not be given during class time or study halls.

- Re- test/ Re-teach will be given at the discretion of the teacher.
- Pop-quizzes and scheduled quizzes will be given.

PARTICIPATION GRADE:

- Workbooks will occasionally be turned in and graded for accuracy.
- Coming Prepared for class
 - I will check almost daily to see that you have the following items:
 - Bible
 - Workbook
 - Notebook
 - Agenda
- Classroom Participation
